Professional Summary

I have spent over twenty years in unscripted television working across the field and the edit bay. My experience as a producer, shooter, and editor involves delivering high stakes content for major networks like NBC, MTV, and HGTV. I specialize in the narrative structure and pacing required for broadcast television, whether I am managing a field production or cutting a series in post. My work is defined by a consistent ability to meet the rigorous technical and creative standards demanded by premier networks and streaming platforms.

Professional Experience

Producer / Shooter: NBC, MTV, Court TV

- Managed all aspects of field production for broadcast series and pilots, including JR Sport Brief and MTV's Scarred.
- Directed on-camera talent and managed small-to-mid-sized crews to ensure technical and creative goals were met.
- Captured high-quality field footage as a primary shooter, maintaining network-level visual standards in unscripted environments.

Field Producer: Bravo, A&E

- Oversaw field operations and narrative development for hit unscripted programs, including Make Me a Supermodel and Paranormal State.
- Collaborated with executive producers to identify and capture key story beats in real-time.
- Supervised production logistics, talent relations, and technical crews to maintain schedule and budget requirements.

Associate / Coordinating Producer: VH1, MTV, TruTV, Food Network, HGTV

- Orchestrated production workflows across multiple departments for high-profile network series.
- Facilitated communication between field and post-production teams to streamline the delivery process.
- Managed critical logistics, including locations coordination for Room Raiders 2.0 and production coordinating for What's Your Sign Design.
